Lavish Lockyer Valley living and entertaining finds a new benchmark inside 'Refugen', a magnificent country estate set in one of the most sought after rural areas in Queensland.

Approach via an expansive, tree lined driveway that cuts through park-like grounds uncovering a stately homestead that spans close to 1,200sqm across one level. The meticulous renovation captures the elegance and charm of the grand colonial set on an exquisite 12.4ha parcel boasting mature trees, lush lawns and stunning rural views.

Bespoke craftsmanship builds layers of character throughout - from beautiful timber flooring, soaring ceiling heights, decorative balustrading and intricate plasterwork. High, french and sliding doors open to expansive verandas allowing natural light to flood into living and bedrooms.
